Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information referred to in the information disclosure statement filed September 1, 2004 has been considered.

Preliminary Amendment

Applicant's preliminary amendment has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 16, 18, 21, 22 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 16, it is unclear if Applicant intends to positively claim the stepping motor. Note the recitation "can be changed in the inclination-adjusting function by the electric drive (6) in a stepwise manner – in particular with a stepping motor". In claim 18, it cannot be determined if Applicant intends to positively claim electronic torque limitation "or" mechanical torque limitation. In claim 21, "the passenger compartment" lacks proper antecedent basis. In claim 21, it cannot be determined if Applicant intends to positively claim the passenger compartment.

Art Unit: 3636

Note the recitation "can be actuated from the passenger compartment". In claim 21, the recitation "preferably" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the recitation are part of the claimed invention. In line 3 of claim 21, the recitation "and/or" fails to positively define that which Applicant intends to claim. In claim 22, the recitation "or one or more" fails to positively define that which Applicant intends to claim. In claim 22, it cannot be determined if Applicant intends to positively claim the wireless remote control. Note the recitation "can be folded over by wireless remote control". In claim 24, the recitation "or at least" fails to positively define that which Applicant intends to claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 13-15, 17, 19, 20 and 23 are allowed.

Claims 16, 18, 21, 22 and 24 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Motor operated adjustment of a vehicle seat assembly is shown by each of Moradell et al (5483853), Bray et al (5435624), Kunz et al (5269588), and Baloché et al (5717300). A control device for remotely adjusting
